5 U.S. Code § 3308 - Competitive service; examinations; educational requirements prohibited; exceptions

U.S. Code    Notes

The Office of Personnel Management or other examining agency may not prescribe a minimum educational requirement for an examination for the competitive service except when the Office decides that the duties of a scientific, technical, or professional position cannot be performed by an individual who does not have a prescribed minimum education. The Office shall make the reasons for its decision under this section a part of its public records.
